

FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my family's time at home.

Indiana's law has been very effective.

I used to receive about 10 calls per week, I have not received one phone call since I registered on the Indiana Telephone Privacy List.